State Convention, as furnished to the Raleigh papers by the Secretaries of the Convention. It will be seen that there were sixty-three counties represented by 312 dele-We risk nothing in saying that a more intelligent body of men never assembled in political Convention in this State, and for proof of our assertion, invite an examination of the list of delegates. To this we will add that a more earnest body of men-men more determined to examine all things carefully and decide according to their best judgment and highest convictions of duty, we have never seen. Upon some questions there may have been differences—upon none were there divisions at the Convention, nor will there be any during the canvass. If our opponents calculate upon such, they will reckon without their host. We know what we say, when we state that among their most prominent leaders the first mutterings of disaffection which presage the coming storm, are not unheard. Their existence cannot long be ignored, nor their voice stifled.

The decision of the Convention upon ad valorem, as the issue made by our opponents has been rather improperly called, is such as we looked for and desired. It is in accordance with the genius of the Democratic party. It is regardful of plighted faith and conservative of the sectional compromises of the Constitution. We remarked last week, that "neither in State nor National affairs can the Democratic party consent to array itself upon a sectional issue, or for the abrogation of constitutional compromises of sectional difficulties." The result has shown that our confidence was not misplaced.

Let us say another thing. We had last week another instance of the non-sectional character of the Democracy, in the stand taken by prominent gentlemen from the West, as Hon. W. W. Avery, Gov. Reid, and others, in defence of the Constitution and its guarantees.

Our opponents will make an attempt to create the im pression that they are the peculiar friends of the poor men, and that their movement is made for the benefit of poor men, while in fact nothing is farther from the truth. In the first instance the movement is made for the benefit of the leaders who want to get back into power, and in the second instance, their movement, if successful 951/4. would have the very opposite effect to that which they Our opponents mislead a good many people, even among Democrats, by arguing that since the Democratic party goes for ad valorem as the basis of duties levied on imports by the general government, it is bound to go for the doctrine which our opponents have recently discovered and to which they apply the same name in this State. Let us see :-Ad valorem in the sense in which it is attempted to be applied to our State Constitution and system of State revenue, never was advocated by any party in national politics, and never reduced to practice under any system of government on earth. The advocates of ad valorem in this State, go for a uniform rate of per centage upon all property alike, and only upon property. To carry out their idea, they would tax the stock and the implements used by the sturdy yoeman, to raise food for the subsistence of his wife and family, just as much per cent. as they would the superfluities of the wealthy or the luxuries of the self-indulgent. No Democratic Tariff has ever done that. The tariff of 1846 framed by Gen. J. J. McKay, did not do so. The Tariff of 1847 does not do so. Coffee and Tea are admitted free. All classes of spirituous liquors are taxed thirty per cent. upon their value—ad valorem as the phrase is. In fact these schedules and classes of goods are taxed at nearly all rates from 1 to 30 per cent. There is not any such thing as this horizontal uniformity of rate that our would-be reformers seek to introduce into our State, even at the cost of disturbing those constitutional compromises under which the different sections of the State were progressing harmoniously.

its of this question. We will hereafter discuss it in all its bearings, and, while doing so, will have the satisfaction of knowing that our party, in its platform, has met dulging in a bill of indictment against opponents who ought to be laboring in the same cause; neither have we been afraid to denounce our sectional enemies in mittee reported, through their chairman, the following Green, Dr T J Pitchford, Thomas J Foote, J T Russell, so many words, nor stultified ourselves, as our opponents | resolutions : have done, by selecting as our candidate a gentleman whose record is opposed to all the most important planks next Legislature : And, whereas, it is the duty of the Deof the platform upon which they have placed him.

They have shown their sincerity by putting forth as the advocate of what they call ad valorem, John Pool, of Pasquotank, a gentleman whose votes in the last Legislature are recorded against it. They avow themselves in favor of protecting aggression on the rights of native tricts, to hold meetings and appoint delegates to said Conand adopted citizens, and appoint as the guardian of these latter a good Know-Nothing. They charge the Democrats with having annulled long established compromises between the conflicting interests of different townsman. sections, and yet base their own hopes of success upon doing the very thing they denounce. They go to the West as its particular friends, yet placing their standard in the hands of a gentleman whose uniform record is against any work for the development of that section .-They are opposed to office-hunting and spoils, while at the same time they offer for the Presidency a gentleman who has held more offices than any man in North Car-

In what proud contrast to this inconsistency does the Democratic party stand and what a different position does its tried, able and faithful standard-bearer occupy? Let every Democrat, every conservative man do his duty and a glorious triumph awaits us.

Having been constantly occupied in the busi ness of the Convention during its whole session, we were unable to correspond with the "Journal" which we trust will be accepted by our readers as a full explanation of our failure to do so. Of our pleasant association with our Democratic brethren from all parts of the State we need say no more than that it will long opposition party to destroy its power. dwell in our memory.

FRIDAY EVENING, 41 O'CLOCK. The caucus held last night having adjourned to 9 o'clock this morning, its deliberations were continued until 44 o'clk this evening, when the President, Hon D S Reid, took the chair, and the caucus merged into a Convention. Hon W W Avery, of Burke, moved that the Convention take a recess until 7 o'clock. Mr. Avery withdrew his motion Mr. J R McLean renewed it. Mr. McLean's motion was voted down. Mr. Hill, of Caswell, called for the report of the commitee appointed on yesterday to draft resolutions. The following resolutions were then presented and read by Hon W W Avery of Burke, chairman of the committee :

1. Resolved, That we cordially approve and re-affirm the resoations of the Democratic National Convention which assembled at Cincinnati in June, 1856 2. Resolved, That neither Congress nor a Territorial Legislature, whether by direct legislation, or legislation of an indirect and unfriendly character, possesses the power to annul or impair the constitutional rights of any citizen of the United States to take his slave property into the common Territories, and there hold and enjoy the same while the territorial condition remains. 3. Resolved. That we regard the distribution of the public lands or their proceeds, the enactment of homestead bills, or any other mode of disposing of the public domain, without equivalent, as unconstitutional, anti-democratic, and impolitic, 4. Resolved, That the threataning aspect of our national affairs, owing to the rise of a sectional and fanatical party at the North, eopardizing not only the rights and interests of the South, but the perpetuity of the Constitution and the Union, demands that all national men in every section should stand together as a unit in opposition to the aggressive and unprincipled organization known as the black Republican party. 5. Resolved, That the only hope of securing the requisite unity of action in defence of constitutional rights depends upon the success of the Democratic party, and that all organizations in Mr. A this State or elsewhere, with the view of impairing that unity, or casting imputation upon the great conservative party of the country, is calculated to give aid and comfort to the enemies of the Constitution, and thereby gravely imperil the very existence of the government itself. 6. Resolved, That while we make no threat, and throw out no menace, we solemnly declare that the people of this State will resist aggression upon their Constitutional rights whenever the emergency arises.

7. Resolved, That the recent invasion of the soil of our sister State of Virginia, by a band of armed traitors, was the legitimate result of the principles and teachings of the black Republican party, and the triumph of that party would be followed by continued bloody raids of like character upon all the border Southern States; that such collisions, even if unattended by the present exasperating causes of alienation, would alone destroy that fraternal feeling between the sections, without which the Union cannot endure.

8. Resolved, That the course of our Democratic Representatives in the present Congeess of the United States meets with our warmest approval, and that the manly and patriotic action of those national Democrats from the non-slaveholding States who have so nobly co-operated and continue to co-operate with them, demands a cordial and heartfelt recognition at our hands. 9. Resolved, That having the fullest confidence in the patriot ism and ability of the national Democratic Convention to assemble at Charleston on the 23d of April next, we hereby pledge ourselves to give to the nominees of that Convention a zealous and unwavering support.

10. Resplied, That James Buchanan, President of the United States, deserves the thanks of the South and of the whole country for the broad constitutional policy which has tharacterized the course of his administration.

11. Resolved, That we are opposed to disturbing any of the sectional compromises of our Constitution, State or National and that we especially deprecate the introduction, at this time, by the Opposition party of North Carolina into our State politics of a question of constitutional amendment affecting the basis upon which our revenue is raised, believing it to be premature, impol tic, dangerous and unjust; at the same time we deem it the duty of the Legislature, when passing acts for the raising of revenue so to adjust taxation as to bear as equally as practicable within the limits of the Constitution, upon the various interests and classes of property in all sections of the State. 12. Resolved, That we are anxious to see the different sections of the State fostered and developed, and to that end believe that such aid should be given towards the forwarding to completion of the works of internal improvement already begun, and the construction of such others as may be deemed expedient, as the credit of the State and the means of her citizens may permit, without injuriously affecting the one or imposing to onerous burdens on the other.

Mr. Cantwell moved to receive and adopt the resolutions reported unanimously. Mr. Bledsoe moved a division of the question, so to vote for the eleventh one separately from the others. He said low-priced machine as yet offered, sewing with two threads, that from principle and policy he was opposed to that reso- and lution-that he would defend and endorse the platform of the party, but could not vote against ad valorem Mr. Williams, of Caswell, said that these were his views, but that he would vote for the platform with a "mental reservation " in regard to the eleventh resolution.

The resolutions then passed unanimously. Mr. Avery introduced a resolution endorsing and recommending the re-nomination of Gov. John W. Ellis, as follows, which was unanimously adopted: Resolved. That the course of Gov. Ellis has been such as to confirm and increase the confidence reposed in him, to reflect honor upon himself, and to promote the best interests of the entire State; and that with the fullest confidence in his triumpant re election, we again present to the people of North Caro ina, as the Democratic candidate for Governor, JOHN W.

ELLIS, of Rowan, a gentleman and a patriot, a statesman fully tried and never found wanting. The adoption of the resolution was received with cheers and applause. On motion of Mr. W. R. Cox, of Wake, a committee o five was appointed by the chair, consisting of the following gentlemen, to inform Gov. Ellis of his re-nomination, and ask his presence in the meeting of the Convention at night : Hon. W. W. Avery, Hon. W. S. Ashe, N. N. Fleming, M. S.

Stokes, J. R. McLean. Mr. Avery moved that a committee of eight, one from each Congressional District, be appointed as an executive committee, and four as a central committee. Carried. Mr. Cantwell moved to adjourn until 7 o'clock, P. M., which was withdrawn for the time on suggestion. Mr. Thomas, of Jackson, rose to express his intention to support the platform and the candidate for Governor with all his ability. Mr. Cantwell moved that the Secretaries be directed to furnish the proceedings of the Convention to the Democratic Presses of the city, and that the Democratic papers of the State be requested to copy them. Carried. On motion of W. L. Steele, of Richmond, the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the National Democratic Convention at Charleston: W W Holden, Wake; Hon that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you. Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, has acknowledged that he was cognizant of John Brown's intentions. The shame of the election of Seward to the Presidency must never disgrace this country. (Cries of no, never, and applause.)

We have opposition at home to meet. The opposition party tell us that Northern Democrats are not sound on the slavery question; we have only to revert to recent events to prove this false. The Democrats of the Northern States deserve great credit for the noble self-sacrificing course they have pursued in battling against fanaticism in its worst form for the cause of the Constitution and the Union. He regretted that the grave body of antiquated politicians and office seekers, which assembled a short time since, had said that they perceived no difference between black Republicanism and Democracy. It certainly showed obtuseness of visiondifferences might arise in the Democratic party, but the word didide is not in its vocabulary—it might have differed to-day. but there was no division-it is based on time honored principle, and has no power to divide. The black Republican party must be beaten down, the peace of the Country must be preserved, and the Democratic party can and will do it. (Applause.) The ancient office seekers who met here on the 22d of February last, nominated two candidates for the Presidency from this State. There are already in nomination for this office, by this party, sixty six candidates, and yet they say the Democrats want all the offices. Can we call this a party? a fraction of a party? No, it is a sort of joint stock company, each member is anxiously waiting his turn to be rotated into position, and it may not inaptly be compared to a lottery-a bogus gift book lottery would pay better. The opposition have adopted ad valorem in this State as their hobby, and have sent forth a standard bearer, who, Mr. Fleming then moved to amend Mr. Fulton's resolution | a few short months ago, on oath, as a representative in the Legislature of the State, by his vote declared ad valorem to be wrong in principle. John Kerr, loudly called for, said he felt somewhat embarrassed in addressing the members of the Convention, as they were undoubtedly wearied after the ardons labors of the day. (Glancing at the galleries which were crowded with the gentler sex.) he remarked that he was desperately in love with all the ladies. (Loud laughter.) He complimented Gov. Ellis on the statesmanlike and patriotic speech which has just fallen from his lips-he had prepared an argument on some of the questions of the day, but the Governor had stolen his thunder, forstalled his literary and political market. He said he had belonged to the Whig par ty, had acted under its flag under the influence of honest convictions, but he left it, believing the Democratic party to be the only national, conservative party in the Union; he had abused it, and in turn had been abused; he therefore considered the account balanced.

Mr Kerr then proceeded to speak of the opposition of the Black Republican party; said that Northern pulpits were entered Sabbath after Sabbath by ministers for the ostensible purpose of preaching sermons, when in fact they delivered political anti-slavery harangues; he felt sure of the success of the Democratic party, though he did not believe them infailible or divine, as did Andrew Johnson, of Tennes remarks were attentively listened to, and frequently interrupt d by shouts of applause.

Hon A M Scales was next called for, who in a very eloquent speech endorsed and pledged his support to the platform and nominee of the Convention; said he was in favor of independence in the Union, or independence out of it; his speech was received by the assemblage with evident satisfaction and vehemently applauded. Mr Steele being called he had performed during the day had unfitted him for speaking; he however, made a very impressive and eloquent ad-

On motion of Mr. Avery, that part of the resolutions introduced this morning in regard to the Central Committee, was reconsidered and stricken out.

Messrs. Holden, Hill, Haywood and Saunders, were then loudly called for. No response being made to the call, On motion of Hos. S. P. Hill, the thanks of the Convention were tendered to the Chairman and Secretaries for the ability and zeal with which they had discharged the duties assigned them. TO THE NIBROHANTS OF THE SOUTH, WHO

BUY FOR CASH

WE BEG to inform the Merchants of the South, that for the future we will conduct our business expressly with view to the wants of the Southern Trade. The handsome patronage which this trade has bestowed upon us, since we commenced business, has induced us to adopt this course Moreover, the prosperity of the South is increasing the number of merchants, and creating competition that compels c oser buying than has hitherto prevailed. The bear Merciants now buy largely for cash, and the number, such buyers are rabidly increasing. We do not at presen know of any cash Dry Goods House in New York that ad dresses itself particularly to the Southern Trade, and w embrace the opening thus afforded to announce that we will conduct our business and purchases expressly with a view to Southern wants.

We arnestly commend to the consideration of all who can buy for cash the ollowing statement of the nature of or business, which we think will convince them that at lead our stock is worthy of an examination. We buy for Cast exclusively, largely at auction, also at Sheriffs' sales and wherever money commands low prices, and we sell to Cash exclusively; thus we neither pay nor chase for the risk of Credit, and besides making no losses, we conductour business with small expense. We are in the Courtlandt street, where rents are cheap, and we keep a costly salesman, nor send abroad at more costly travelen or collecting agents, which is no trifling item of expense to our credit houses. Our stock will be found somewhat irre gular, because we only buy such goods as we can obtain at less than market rates, but we make it an aim to deal in fresh and desirable goods only, and if we ever have any that are otherwise, they shall be fairly represented.

There are numbers of merchants throughout the country who have never tried what cash can do in New York. We respectfully arge all such to try the experiment, and believe we are warranted in assuring them that except on leading domestic goods, a REASONABLE RETAIL PROFIT CAN

For surselves we promise fair and honorable dealing to all who may patronise us, and with confidence refer all who may not know us, to a great number of the best merchan's throughout the Southern States, one or more of whom may be found in most of the important business towns. We are sure they will cordially bear testimony to our respectability and the cheapness of our goods.
